Note:

I took a workbook and had a print shop cut the binding and three-hole punch it. Then copied the pages and reassembled them in a binder for each student, using only the material for this year, in the order that we covered it. I placed a Year --Printable page in the front as a sign off page for each child and put one of the Earned Pin pages where appropriate. Ideally you would probably want to order a workbook for each child instead of copying the pages. ~Kim
